MRS, MARY ARMSTRONG. Continued Buspicion that her Death was Caused by Foul Play-Rumors of a Secret Post-Mortem Examination.

The APPEAL, of Tuesday, contained ing judges, clerks and deputies to hold the account of the death of Mrs. Mary Armelection Saturday, December 1st, to fill the strong, and the arrest of Mary Walsh, colstrong, and the arrest of Mary Walsh, col-ored, who stole one handred dollars from the dead woman. Mrs. Armstrong was evident-ly a lady, and had seen bytter days. She came here from Nashville, where her hus-band died and left her in a dependent con-dition. Mrs. Armstrong, upon reaching dition. Mrs. Armstrong, upon reaching Memphis, made due inquiry as to work, but was not able to secure much. She rented a room at 89 Main street, and every day would endeavor to secure something to do. She also attended the Linden-street Christian church, being a member of that denomination, and gave every indication of being a good and wellbehaved woman. The ladies of the Ladies' christian association cared for Mrs. Armstrong when she became ill, and procured the negro woman, Mary Walsh, to nurse and take care of her. Mrs. Armstrong was sick but a short while before she died, and there is now additional cause to suspect foul play. For some reason not known, no authorized post-mortem examination was made. Yesterday, Rev

We are unable to ascertain the truth of this report, but the ladies of the christian association and Dr. Walk think some action by the authori-ties should be had in order to ascertain the real cause of Mrs. Armstrong's death.

GORDON'S ACCEPTANCE Of the Captainey of the Chickesaw Guards-Graceful Expression of Thanks for the Honor Conferred:

The following is the letter of General Geo W. Gordon accepting the captaincy of the BARTLETT, TENN., November 24, 1877. F. Holst, Secretary and Treasurer Chickesan DEAR SIR-Your communication notifying me of my election as captain of the Chickasaw Guards is received. When the subject of becoming captain of your splendid organ-ization was mentioned to me, some weeks since, and I was urged by various parties to accept the office in the event it should be tendered to me. I uniformly announced that my private business would deprive me of the pleasure and honor of doing so. I supposed that this announcement had removed my name from further consideration by the company, and I heard nothing more of the matter until I learned that I had been elected. Your action, therefore, was as unexpected to me as it was complimentary. And since the honor has been conferred under such circumstances and so entirely unsolicited on my part, I feel constrai ed to accept, and will try to serve you, at all events. For this unmerited consideration and this generous expression of their regard and confidence, make my un-qualified thanks to the company, and say that I shall be happy to be with them at their next regular meeting, to establish our official re-lations and discuss our general interests. I have the honor to be your obedient servant.

G. W. GORDON.
